

Honouring veterans

Photo by Diane Sawchuk

A commemorative ceremony honouring Nepean's veterans was held last Saturday, May 28 at General Burns Park on Chesterton Drive. In the top picture at the wreath laying, from left, were Doug Brunton, vice-president of North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) Veterans of Canada, Mayor Jim Watson, Second World War veteran Ted Lawson, pipe major Mike Durant, Gord Jenkins, national president of NATO Veterans of Canada and Knoxdale-Merivale ward councillor Keith Egli. In the bottom photo, three-year-old Holden, left, and his brother Jason, 4, enjoys lunch at General Burns Family Fun Day.

Dr. And
D.L.

350 Palladium
Kanata,
613-2

I believe your

I believe in seeing

I believe in being

I believe in listening

I believe in telling you that is going

I believe in letting you d or how soon you pr

I believe in building relation

I believe you wi

I belie

If this is the kind of dental pr call, visit our website, or drop

info@drandreast

www.drandreast

Home Climate